ABOUT LIFELONG LEARNING
The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware is a membership organization for adults 50 and over to enjoy classes, teach, exchange ideas and travel together. Instructors teach subjects they enjoy to students who are there for the love of learning!

Academic cooperative
The program provides opportunities for intellectual development, cultural stimulation, personal growth and social interaction in an academic cooperative run by its members, who volunteer their time and talents. Members develop and teach the classes that are at the heart of the program, and the efforts and participation of all member volunteers are key to the vitality and success of this academic cooperative.

Membership open to all
Membership is open to people 50 years of age or older and to the spouses of members at any age. This semester more than 260 courses, lectures and concerts are offered to over 2,200 active members. You are welcome whether your formal education ended early in life or you have acquired advanced degrees. An interest in learning is all that is required.

Osher Foundation affiliation
Established as the Academy of Lifelong Learning in 1980 by the University of Delaware, in 2010 the Academy received endowment support from the Bernard Osher Foundation. In recognition of its affiliation with the Osher Foundation, the Academy was renamed the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware in Wilmington.

Need-based partial scholarships are available. Application is confidential. Forms are available from Joni Bero in the Office. Completed applications should be submitted, along with your membership form, directly to Carol Bernard in the Office by February 5, 2015.

Refund requests must be made in writing before February 5, 2015. Parking hangtags must be returned with the written refund request. Full refunds will be granted prior to the beginning of the semester for those who find they cannot attend and those who have chosen courses that have no openings. Members serve as volunteers in a variety of areas, such as instruction and curriculum support, the Council, reception/information, duplicating, audiovisual, outreach, art and social activities. Those members who serve as instructors, on committees and in a variety of other roles are supported in their efforts by other members and University staff. Members who would like to serve in a specific area or wish to consider becoming an instructor should contact the Office staff at registration or complete the Invitation to Volunteer form on page 84 or 86.

ORIGINAL PURPOSE AND PHILOSOPHY

The Academy of Lifelong Learning, established in 1980 by the University of Delaware, provides opportunities for intellectual and cultural exploration and development for people 50 and above. The Academy is a place where individuals of diverse backgrounds meet to share interests and to develop appreciation and knowledge in new areas.

The Academy program is developed by its members with the support of the Division of Professional and Continuing Studies. It utilizes the members’ wealth of experience and talent in planning and implementing college-level educational experiences. The Academy functions as an intellectual cooperative. Members volunteer as instructors, planners, and committee members, according to their skills.

The enrollment of the Academy includes men and women who have held positions of varied responsibility. The only requirements for admission are interest in a continuing educational experience, support of the program through participation, and the membership fee.

The Academy goals are to enable its members to learn, to express themselves, and to enjoy cultural experiences in a friendly, cooperative atmosphere among contemporaries.

Charles Blake, 1980
