at the University of Delaware in Wilmington

About OLLI

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at the University of Delaware in Wilmington is a membership cooperative for adults 50 and better to enjoy classes, teach, exchange ideas and travel together. The program provides opportunities for intellectual development, cultural stimulation, personal growth and social interaction in an academic cooperative run by its members, who volunteer their time and talents. Established as the Academy of Lifelong Learning in 1980 by the University of Delaware, in 2010 the Academy received endowment support from the Bernard Osher Foundation. Membership is open to people from any state, 50 years of age or older, and to the spouses of members at any age.

Lifelong Learning Membership Benefits

Lifelong Learning Courses
Membership includes up to five courses each semester (pages 7–38). Classes meet once a week in Arsht Hall during the day, Monday through Friday.

Community Service Courses
Members have an opportunity to give back to the community by participating in unlimited community service courses (see page 39). These courses also fall outside the five academic course limit.

Extracurricular Activities
Members may participate in unlimited extracurricular activities (pages 39–43) in addition to five courses. Sign up for extracurricular activities on the back of the registration form or online.

Trips
Member trips and class trips are planned by the Travel Committee and instructors in coordination with University staff. Upcoming trips are advertised on the travel board at Arsht Hall.

Members-Only Events
Art Exhibits • Lectures • Musical Performances • Social Events
The weekly activities notice Osher Lifelong Learning This Week, bulletin boards and postings include information about upcoming events.

Events Open to the Public
On many Friday afternoons, a lecture or activity is offered that is free and open to the public. Check the weekly activities notice Osher Lifelong Learning This Week, bulletin boards and postings for information about upcoming events. Bring friends and introduce them to the joys of lifelong learning!

University of Delaware Opportunities and Privileges

University of Delaware ID Card
Members are eligible for a University ID card that offers privileges at the University’s Morris Library and Carpenter Sports Building, and offers discounts at University stores and some University-sponsored events and performances. Information and request forms are available in the Office. The fee is $10. Request for ID card must be submitted by April 12.

Auditing University of Delaware Courses
Audit/Listener: Registration without credit or grade. Class attendance is required, but class participation is not. Audit one UD credit course each fall and spring semester on a space-available basis without paying tuition. Does not include online/distance learning courses, certificate programs or UD travel/study programs. All relevant fees apply. Final day to request to audit spring classes is February 25. To search for available courses, visit udel.edu/courses. Information and request forms are available in the Office.

Carpenter Sports Building, Student Fitness Center
Members are eligible to use the “Hen House,” the student physical fitness center in the Carpenter Sports Building on the University’s Newark campus for a fee of $50 for six months or $100 for a year. To enjoy this privilege, a University ID card is needed. Information and request forms are available in the Office.

Request for ID card must be submitted by April 12.

UD Internet Access
Members are eligible for a UDel email account, which provides access to WiFi on the UD campus and use of Morris Library databases. Information and request forms are available at Reception. Request for internet access must be submitted by April 12.

Lectures and Events
The University of Delaware offers many events that are open to the public. Stay informed through the weekly activities notice Osher Lifelong Learning This Week, bulletin boards, on Facebook (www.facebook.com/OLLIWilmington), and postings at Arsht Hall or the University website (www.udel.edu).

★ New!

A01 THE ART OF APPRECIATING ART*
Tuesday: 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Instructor: Alan Goodman

What we see and enjoy in a painting is a highly personal experience. Nevertheless, there are many factors beyond pure personal preference that must influence any fair opinion of a painting. This course will consider these fundamental factors, the “grammar” of a painting, in detail and in an orderly sequence.

★ New!

A02 THE LOPER LEGACY*
Monday: 12:30 p.m.–1:45 p.m.
Instructor: Marilyn Bauman

Wilmington, Delaware, artists Edward L. Loper Sr. and Edward L. Loper Jr., individually and together, birthed a new tradition of art. This course illuminates their lives as well as their aesthetic achievements. The Delaware Art Museum will exhibit their work March 23-Aug. 4, 2019, the first exhibition to showcase their paintings together.

Fine Arts

All art classes require participants to have their own supplies. For beginning art classes, a materials list is provided prior to or during the first class of the semester. Supplies, if needed, may be purchased from an online or local art supply store. In a few classes, supplies may be purchased at cost from the class instructor. Check the catalog for further information.

B01 ABSTRACT ART WORKSHOP: INTERMEDIATE
Tuesday: 9 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Instructors: Jag Deshpande, Eric Sallee
Prerequisite: Prior painting experience.
Materials needed: Art supplies in chosen medium.

Abstract painting workshop for art students with prior painting experience. Guidance provided upon request. Students work on subjects provided by instructors or on their own. Biweekly critique and class discussions. Limited to 22 students. ADL

Open House—January 3

An open house is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Thursday, January 3 in Arsht Hall for prospective members to learn about lifelong learning activities and programs. Drop in for light refreshments, a tour and a preview of the coming semester. You may register for classes the same day if you wish. For more information, call 302-573-4486. Please consider introducing your friends and neighbors to the benefits of lifelong learning membership by bringing them to the open house.

B02 ACRYLIC PAINTING MADE SIMPLE*
Wednesday: 12:30 p.m.–3 p.m.
Instructors: Katherine Kelk, Patti Morse

For those with little experience with acrylics or painting to explore painting with acrylics. Step-by-step demonstrations and instruction of a painting each week, with support and assistance to the class as needed. Discussions about materials, brush strokes, basic techniques, color theory basics, composition and textural techniques applicable to acrylic paints. Limited to 22 students. A

B03 ACRYLICS AND MORE*
Tuesday: 12:30 p.m.–3:15 p.m.
Instructors: Mary Kate McKinley, Mary Lou Hamilton

Intermediate and advanced painters create original artworks using experimental techniques, imagination, water-based paints and a sense of humor. This course features individual help in a relaxed atmosphere! Limited to 22 students. A

B04  ADVENTURES WITH WATERCOLOR*
Friday: 9 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Instructors: Patti Morse, John Erickson
Prerequisite: Beginner’s Watercolor

This class is not for the intermediate watercolor purist. Our watercolor adventure includes a variety of papers, water-soluble media and paint additives to create unique textures and vibrant art. Students should have beginner watercolor experience and supplies. Materials fee of $5. Limited to 22 students. A

B05  ART OF COLLAGE*
Thursday: 9 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Instructors: Mary Kate McKinley, Rosemary Cobb

Collage is an art form using paper, glue, paint and found objects in new ways. This course is exploratory and includes printmaking and painting techniques. The curriculum varies each semester due to the multitude of ways to create collages. All levels of experience welcome! Limited to 22 students. A

B06  ART SAMPLER: INTRO TO DRAWING AND PAINTING*
Tuesday: 12:30 p.m.–3 p.m.
Instructors: Patti Morse, Katherine Kelk, Cree Hovsepian

A survey course for those with little or no experience with drawing or painting. Four three-week segments focus on drawing, watercolor, acrylics and oil painting. Discussion and hands-on practice with all four media, along with introductory exploration of the materials used in each. Participants actively draw or paint each week. Materials fee of $25 payable at the first class. Limited to 22 students. A

B07  ARTISTS’ OPEN WORKSHOP*
Thursday: 12:30 p.m.–2:30 p.m.
Instructor: Dot Owens-Davis

An opportunity for artists to work independently in an open workshop. No instruction, no critiques. Limited to 24 students.

B08  ARTISTS’ WORKSHOP*
Monday: 1 p.m.–3:15 p.m.
Instructor: Mary Tanne

G02 ANCIENT MIDDLE EAST*
Monday: 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Instructor: Frank Gay
The ancient Middle East is long lost but remains important to the customs, laws and religions of the West today. L
Today, there is an alarming rise in anti-Semitism in predominantly Christian nations. We will look at the history, theological roots and current shape of this unfortunate and frightening trend. Jesus, born a Jew, who represents love to his followers, ironically suffers a legacy among Jews of hate, misunderstanding and persecution.

Survey of conservative thought in America from its relatively marginal influence in 1945 to a dominant position in cultural and political discourse. We will explore the multiple (and often conflicting) schools of conservative intellectual history and how conservative theory gradually moved to the center of cultural and political discourse.

Having failed to achieve a stable, viable union under the Articles of Confederation, the 13 states came together through the long, hot Philadelphia summer of 1787 to try to create a Constitution they could all agree on. It wasn't easy.

Exploring the origins and impact of food and beverages on society from cultures throughout the world, from ancient times to current food trends.

Learn history through the numerous historical markers in the local area. Class members will research markers and share with the class. Resources will be available.

An in-depth presentation of the French Revolution. A consideration of its political, economic and social origins, the events that drove it and the individuals who led it.

Much of the ancient world still lives. We will examine some ways in which Greeks, Romans and Jews of antiquity remain influential even now. Presentations by instructor; discussion encouraged.

Hike into History, Part 2
The first half of the semester we will highlight sites that relate to the American Revolution in and around Delaware, visiting local museums and historic locations. Following a docent-led program, we will hike an optional one-to-three miles, rain or shine. Participants drive or carpool directly to the scheduled locations listed on a syllabus, which includes driving directions. All sites require a fee or small donation. The ability to receive email communication is important.

Hours of outside preparation: * 0-1  1-2  2 or more
Instructional mode: A=Active, D=Discussion, L=Lecture, V=Video Based
These courses are divided into categories to help members make appropriate selections. Courses classified as COMPUTER LABS involve hands-on instruction with individual equipment. Courses classified as COMPUTER PRESENTATIONS consist of classroom lectures and demonstrations and are applicable to PC, Mac or both if so specified. The laboratory courses are divided into three levels of difficulty: beginner, intermediate and advanced. These levels refer to the MINIMUM computer background needed to understand the material fully. More specific prerequisites are provided in the course description and syllabus for each course.

Meeting such prerequisites for laboratory courses is essential for completing class exercises. If you are unsure if a course is appropriate for your level of experience, contact the instructor for more information. A presentation course, however, may include topics which appeal to all levels of computer users unless specific prerequisites are included in the description or syllabus.

Guest speakers will join this lively class to help you develop a plan, whether for now or the future. Workbooks will be provided. AL

How are courses assigned?

Classes are assigned by a computer-based allocation process. All registrations—whether online, in-person or mailed in—received by the January 4 priority registration deadline will be included in the allocation pool. When demand exceeds availability in popular courses, the allocation process takes into account a variety of factors, including the priority you’ve assigned to the class and whether or not you’ve taken the class before. Registrations received after January 4 will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to class availability.
