

Basket Weaving for Beginners

Course Content

Basket weaving class will be a hands-on class where each attendee will work independently on creating up to two baskets. The three instructors will guide the students through the basket weaving process.

Instructors will select a first basket for those attendees who have never made a basket before. After creating a first basket, the attendees may select their next basket creation or may ask for recommendations from the instructors.

Class format: Active – hands on/physical movement