

Students will first learn about basic moribana (shallow container) followed by basic nageire (tall container) arrangements. They will then transition into freestyle arrangements using plant materials representing, for example, mass. Further Students will learn about using unconventional materials, such as paper, plastic, or wire in an arrangement together with plant materials.