

Students in this course have already learned about classic moribana and nageire arrangements. They will further their knowledge of these classic arrangements as well as learning additional free style ones. They will use fresh and dried plant materials as well as unconventional materials in their arrangements. Students will develop a deeper understanding combining fresh and dried plant materials. They will also learn how to make arrangements in two nageire containers and combining them into one cohesive arrangement.