

Car Movies Fall 2023

This class will consist of a collection of movies in which cars are a significant part of the story. Each class will show a movie complete and uncut and so will be longer than the usual class and will be a stand-alone class. Each week's movie will be announced in advance. Requests for specific movies will be honored if possible.