

Now That's Italian – More Operas from Arena di Verona

This semester we have a new set of your favorite operas to view and discuss. The Arena di Verona produces several operas each summer and occasionally one is recorded and made available. I try to keep up with their catalog. I think I have some good ones to share with you this semester! As always, the classes will be recorded and sent to you. That will allow you to review the operas at your leisure. They recordings are available for 2 months!
