

Recorder Ensemble classes are focused on improving skill in recorder playing both through sight reading and by rehearsal of a program of new music each semester. Music is chosen to be representative of a large variety of genre from early renaissance music to Broadway show tunes. The ensemble contains soprano, alto, tenor and bass recorders and is occasionally accompanied by piano or other instruments. An effort is made to have at least one performance each semester either at the Academy or at a local retirement center.