

Each student will learn how to deal cards, how to bid with your partner at the beginner level, and how to take tricks. Depending on the classes' progress and time available, there is a chance for the class to learn a cursory view of scoring and possibly cover a few basic bidding conventions along with offense and defense strategies.