

Cars of the 50s and 60s

The course will begin with the rise of the car culture at the end of World War II. It will continue mostly chronologically until about 1970. It will cover the automotive industry, influential personalities, significant automobiles, and motorsports. The course content will focus mainly on the U.S., Canada, Europe, and Japan with occasional excursions into other parts of the world.