“The Naked Now” by Richard Rhor
Course Instructor: Christine F. Loveland (cloveland53@gmail.com)
Course Co-Instructor: Gilbert Snowden
Course Outline and Syllabus
Spring 2020

Week 1: Introductions, Review of Safety Issues, Technical difficulties, Course Syllabus and Outline Review And Preface “Why I am Writing this Book”

Week 2: Chapter 1: The Gift Is Already Given and Chapter 2, The Great Unsaying and Chapter 3: Three Ways to View the Sunset (pages 15 to 31)

Week 3: Chapter 4: We Should Have “Known” Better and Chapter 5 A Lesson from the Monks (pages 31 to 46)

Week 4: Chapter 6: Glimpses of Wonder: The Quest is Begun, Chapter 7 But We Have to Make Judgments, Don’t We? And Chapter 8: Yes, But….. (pages 46 to 58)

Week 5: Chapter 9: Not Many Things, but One Thing, Chapter 10: What about Jesus? And Chapter 11: Conversion: Begin by Changing the Seer (page 58 to 89)

Week 6: Chapter 12: Change your Mind and Chapter 13: Things “Too Good to Be True” From Polarity Thinking to Prayer (pages 89 to 105)

Week 7: Chapter 14: The Lost Tradition, Chapter 15: Faith is More How to Believe than What to Believe and Chapter 16: Opening the Door: Great Love and Great Suffering (pages 105 to 129)

Week 9 Chapter 20: Sinners, Mystics, and Astrophysicists: How to Celebrate Paradox and Chapter 21 What Every Good Leader Knows (pages 143 to 159)

Week 10: Chapter 22: The Principle of Likeness: In the End, It All Comes Down to This (pages 159 to end)