

Advanced memoirs

This course is a logical continuation of a basic memoir writing course that has been offered by Osher for several years. It will continue to explore creative writing techniques but also will help get students closer to the ultimate goal of publishing their memoirs. The course, like its predecessor, will involve writing in and out of class.