Poets, Painter, and Designers

The life and works of Victor Hugo, Toulouse Lautrec, Coco Chanel and others will serve as the context for developing language skills.

Using an interactive approach, the participants will acquire the vocabulary and the grammatical structures needed to talk about the arts.

In lieu of a textbook, the instructor will prepare and send a weekly power point presentation to the participants prior to the class meeting. This advance familiarity with the lesson will provide the tools for engaging in the lesson.