

This course will provide the language skills needed to carry out basic communicative functions.

Participants will learn pronunciation, vocabulary and grammar to be able to ask directions, to order food, to use public transportation...

They will be encouraged to develop learning strategies by comparing and contrasting French to English. This approach will assist them in expanding their learning beyond the classroom setting.

They will have opportunities to test out their learning through skits and role-play