

Matter of Balance Class

---

This class is intended for the building of confidence for those who wish to safely manage aging while staying in place in their home. Each session will target one aspect of balance to prevent falling hazards and to create safe habits. Each student will be supplied with a workbook to outline fun exercises that will be practiced in a non-threatening and congenial atmosphere.