

The Supreme Court and American History

First Class: The Legacy of Chief Justice John Marshall

Second Class: The Dred Scott Case

Third Class: The Civil War Amendments

Fourth Class: Separate but Equal: The Destruction of the 14th and 15th Amendments

Fifth Class: The Laissez-Faire Court: The Lochner Era

Sixth Class: “Clear and Present Danger”: Justice Holmes and Free Speech

Seventh Class: The New Deal and the Supreme Court

Eighth Class: “Court Packing” and Constitutional Revolution

Ninth Class: The New Dealers Take Control

Tenth Class: “Beyond the Reach of Majorities”: West Virginia v. Barnette (1943)

Eleventh Class: Pearl Harbor and Panic: Korematsu and Civil Liberties in Wartime