

2022 Fall Course Content – Close Knit and Crochet Group

This Fall, for those who are inclined, we will be providing instruction on making fingerless gloves, mittens and gloves. We provide patterns for both easy and more complex patterns. Class participants are free to follow along with the course instructions or work on whatever they want.

As always, we provide beginner instruction for those who have never knitted or crocheted before or for those who are rusty.