

Creative Card Making for Beginners

This course will be a hands-on activity. Students will learn new techniques each week which they will incorporate into their finished product. Each class will introduce more tools and tricks of card making. Participants will leave with completed greeting cards each session.