

This course is limited to students who have completed the intermediate course with the instructor. Students will further their knowledge of classical moribana and nageire as well as freestyle arrangements. They will use fresh and dried plant materials as well as unconventional materials in their arrangements. Students will obtain additional containers, kenzans and unconventional materials as instructed. Students will provide their plant materials for class.