

Students will expand on their knowledge of the basic moribana and nageire arrangements. They will learn additional skills to make various kinds of freestyle arrangements using plant materials representing, for example, mass. Further, students will learn about using unconventional materials, such as paper, plastic, or wire in an arrangement together with plant materials.