

Painting Workshop Course Proposal

This an open workshop where artists of all levels come together to do independent work in any medium.

The atmosphere is friendly & relaxed making it conducive to creative work. Background music is played to enhance the experience.

Participants critique each other's work when asked offering new perspectives.

The instructors regularly circulate offering advice & encouragement.

Instruction is given whenever requested & needed. This includes techniques in the various mediums, art theory, art history, presentation and framing, etc..