

Intermediate Watercolor Workshop

The class is a workshop where each participant works on personal artwork with the supervision of the instructors. Collaboration with other participants is encouraged. Paintings will be critiqued as requested by each individual.