

During this class we will study perspective, masking techniques, painting water, trees, skies, and other intermediate painting techniques.

This is a hands on class. Students will be painting from photographs taken by them.

There will be a question and answer portion of class. Best of all, it will be fun.