

Guitar Workshop

During the first several weeks each student will watch a series of YouTube videos that explain how to develop Big Picture and Little Picture goals. From these goals each student will develop a practice routine that includes a repertoire of tunes to learn.

We will learn guitar tunes introduced by the instructor as well as tunes from the students repertoire.

During the semester various workshops will be introduced to be included in the practice routine as well as to supplement our playing.