

COURSE CONTENT

F Objects as Cultural Artifacts

Graduate students from the UD Center for Material Cultural Studies receive Summer fellowships to learn how to give research presentations to general audiences. They are required to present their research to OLLI members at the Objects as Cultural Artifacts course.

The presentations are about 45 minutes in length followed by Q&A.

The syllabus, including presenters and their research topics is in preparation and will be added to the Course Content when available.