

Lewis & Clark – Voyage of Discovery

Using lecture, PowerPoint and the Ken Burns film “Lewis and Clark – The Journey of the Corps of Discovery,” we will look in depth at the epic journey that was the Lewis and Clark expedition. We will discuss the reason for the Louisiana Purchase, the hardships the expedition endured, the incredible land that was explored, and what happened to these men afterwards. We will also look in depth at Sacajawea, the incredible teenager without whom the Voyage of Discovery would have failed.

Instructor Biography

Bill Jones is a long-term OLLI instructor, both at the Wilmington and Dover campuses. A Cornell graduate and retiree from DuPont and consulting, Bill enjoys history, earth science and travel.