

Spanish Intermediate Reading and Conversation

This course is designed to allow students to practice reading and speaking Spanish. Each class will begin with a general discussion of current topics followed by dividing the class into smaller groups where they can discuss vocabulary to be used in the story which will be read in class. The class will then read a story aloud where they can practice pronunciation followed by a discussion of questions regarding the story.