

Course Content.

Beginners and experienced students will continue to explore working with their clay projects developed in the main class on Thursday. This is an opportunity to refine their work following 24 hours off slow drying when it has reached the leather hard stage.