Serving adults 50+ throughout Delaware and the region

OLLI.UDEL.EDU/KENT-SUSSEX
Join us for fun and learning this fall at OLLI Kent/Sussex!

Welcome to all new, returning and prospective participants in our UD lifelong learning program at OLLI Kent/Sussex! We’re thrilled to provide the new Fall 2021 OLLI catalog listing both in-person classes and statewide online offerings to serve all OLLI members throughout Delaware and beyond.

Not only are we excited to announce approximately 200 online courses, but, finally, that we can return to meeting again in all four of our OLLI locations in Bridgeville, Dover, Lewes and Ocean View, with approximately 60 classes to choose from. Our dedicated instructors are returning this fall with more of the high-quality, well-researched, wide-ranging topics to appeal to the interests of all members.

Don’t forget that you may take both online and in-person courses as a part of your OLLI Kent/Sussex membership, see registration details at right.

We invite you to mark your calendars for these upcoming Open House events:

- Online Open House — August 9, 1 p.m. and August 12, 10 a.m.
- In-person Open House — August 10, 10 a.m., Trinity Faith Christian Center, Lewes
- In-person Open House — August 11, 10 a.m., Wyoming Church, Dover
- Visit olli.udel.edu/kent-sussex for details!

We have so much to look forward to this fall. Most of us are excited to be back together again in the classroom seeing friends and instructors. The social and travel committees are excited to announce their plans for a picnic in October, get-togethers, and other activities and trips this fall. Stay tuned for upcoming dates, times, and details.

We can’t wait for you to join us at OLLI Kent/Sussex this fall.

Number of class sessions: 10
Location of class: Trinity Faith Christian Center, Lewes
Class limit: 24 • Price for course: $30
Course format: Active (Hands-on/physical movement)

Come and enjoy the dance form America grew up with. It has been fun for more than three centuries, and it is easy to learn! If you can walk and smile, you can do this kind of dance. The caller will explain all the moves and walk you through the dance before it starts, then continue to prompt you as the dance goes on. Dances focus on the group, not the individual. We customarily change partners after each dance, so we get to dance with lots of different people. We are a friendly group! It’s easy, and there’s the music!

In March 2020 the World Health Organization (WHO) declared the COVID-19 pandemic a worldwide pandemic. Between then and now, we have been thinking about the end of the COVID-19 pandemic, with each one of us forecasting her/his own post-COVID-19. Because we are all in this together, we can collectively ask these two key questions: how could we forecast a better future based on preparedness and prevention, and what are our individual, family, society and organizational social responsibilities? This is a history course on Euclidean geometry from Euclid in 300 B.C. to the present, centered on The Elements, Euclid’s treatise on the fundamentals of geometry. We learn how it’s structured and how it’s been propagated over the last 2300 years, who are important people involved and how it’s been used. There has not been a book other than the Bible with such a long and widely-distributed history: its copying, printing, translating and learning have taken time and hard work. We will also discuss its long history of adaptations and uses in areas like construction, carpentry, astronomy, art, music, philosophy, theology, and education.

This class is a survey of developments in the automotive industry from 1914 to 1945. It will include technological innovations and motor sports.

This class will examine the remarkable life and career of Alexander Hamilton, the “ten-dollar founding father,” whose status among the architects of our republic has reached new heights since the publication of Ron Chernow’s biography in 2004 and the subsequent musical by Lin-Manuel Miranda, which has played on Broadway since 2015. Both the graceful prose of Chernow’s book and the brilliant lyrics of Miranda’s songs will highlight our trip into the past.

The word Byzantine evokes images of bizarre and sinister intrigues, and an overly bureaucratic government. However, the historical facts are more positive. The Byzantine Empire was a fusion of Roman law, Greek culture and Christianity. It thrived for two centuries, and lasted for a thousand years past the fall of Rome. It was pivotal in establishing the dogma and the organizational structure of Christianity. While the main topic is history, the course will include some art.

Why does the Russian world view differ from ours? The answer lies in Russian experiences, starting a millennium ago from outside invaders to the autocracy of its rulers. This course is an overview of a chaotic history from Kievan Rus to the Russian Revolutions of 1917. Course format is videos from varied sources augmented by lecture.

This course covers, in detail, the role and uses of the equine in the American Civil war. These animals were critical for both sides in the conduct of field combat operations and were actually in combat beside the men.

The course will include some art.

Required Text: Any book of stories translated by Idries Shah and/or any book of poems by Rumi translated by Coleman Barks

Learn about a different way of looking at the world. Explore Sufism and its philosophy to be “in the world but not of it.” Based on love, not intellect or asceticism, Sufism is recognized worldwide as a mystical spiritual tradition. Sufis teach through tales and poems. So, we will read aloud and discuss short Sufi stories and poems as a way into this tradition. Participants should obtain one or more of the following suggested books: Delicious Laughter by Rumi, translated by Coleman Barks, ISBN: 0-9618916-1-0; Open Secret by Rumi, translated by Coleman Barks, ISBN:0-939660-06-7; The Dermis Probe by Idries Shah, ISBN: 0-86304-045-4; Wisdom of the Idiots by Idries Shah, ISBN:0-
From early childhood to adulthood, the biblical Jacob undergoes growth and maturity. Jacob deceives his brother, Esau, and later his father, Isaac. He takes on a new identity when wrestling with a mysterious individual. Join us to discuss the quirks and foibles of this biblical forefather.

What happens when the Christ of faith meets the Jesus of history? Who on Earth Was Jesus? by David Boulton is a synthesis of historical Jesus scholarship. It gives an overview of several factions of Jesus scholars, comparing their conclusions and explaining their theses. The scope is as wide-ranging as it is evenhanded; from theologians to scholars to popes, it distills their thoughts into a comprehensible and comprehensive survey of the best of the contemporary thinkers. Instructor: Peter Harrigan

Number of class sessions: 5 • Location of class: OLLI Online
Class limit: 35 • Price for course: $25
Technological requirements for optimal viewing: Any screen
Course format: Discussion, Lecture

For most of us, our obituary is the last word on our lives and shapes the way we are remembered. Yet many people leave the task of preparing their obituary to bereaved family members and funeral homes. The result may be an incomplete memorial tribute, omitting details and facts considered important by the deceased. In this course, we will explore the history of obituaries, look at examples from the heartbreaking to the hilarious, and have the opportunity to create our own as we would like it.
