

OLLI SUMMER SELECTIONS

JUNE 18 - JULY 25, 2024

FIVE WEEKS OF FUN TOPICS, SHORT COURSES AND DELAWARE FIELD TRIPS

Join us this summer to connect with a fun learning community and make new friends at the University of Delaware's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI). OLLI programs are hosted throughout Delaware for adults 50+ to take classes, teach, exchange ideas and enjoy the camaraderie of their peers.

Register for a single week of up to 12 classes for $30, or unlimited access for the full five-week session for $125.

HERE'S A PARTIAL LIST OF THE NEARLY 100 OFFERINGS!

SCAN FOR OLLI PROGRAM DETAILS.

Delaware site visits and field trips

- Biggs Museum of American Art
- John Dickinson Plantation: National Historic Landmark
- Bombay Hook: Birds and Butterflies
- Historic Milton: View, Dine, Relax
- Air Mobility Command Museum
- Summer Walks: Rehoboth, Bethany Beach, James Farm Ecology Center and More
- Historic New Castle Walking Tour

Dover classes

- Chef Alex Neaton: Conversation and Culinary Advice
- Delaware Coast: Coastal Change and Horseshoe Crabs
- History of Gospel Music

Lewes classes

- Monday at the Movies
- Volunteerism: Sussex County and Nearby
- Mastering Email, Zoom, Facebook
- Tai Chi and Qi Gong Overview
- History of Scotland
- Retirement Tax-Planning Boot Camp

Ocean View classes

- Gentle Yoga
- Seated Exercise for All Abilities

Wilmington classes

- Understanding Your Vital Signs
- First Amendment and Bill of Rights: 2024
- Chair Yoga
- Book Groups

Online classes

- Electric Vehicles: Pros, Cons and Myths
- Family History: African Americans and Indigenous Americans
- My Mother and the Holocaust
- Elder Law and Planning
- Writing Memoirs

Registration and complete course listing available online in mid-May.

Course titles and schedules are subject to change.

